

SOLUTIONS TO SELL MORE APPS

Profiting in the App Store can be very different than successfully creating a mobile app. It takes the right marketing to get exposure, attract users, and turn them into paying customers.

That's why Marketing Your App offers marketing solutions to help developers more exposure, new customers, and increased sales.

As an app marketing agency, we specialize in getting results for iPhone, iPad, and Android apps. Our services include:

- App Store optimization
- Social media marketing
- Press release writing/distribution
- Review site submission
- Search engine optimization
- App icon design

Choose from convenient packages specially designed to get maximum results. Packages can be ordered before your app is launched or after it is being sold.

Marketing Your App has worked with solo developers and larger companies worldwide, helping increase rankings and sales for apps of all kinds.
